Dear Jack,

I was very sorry to miss your call on Monday. I tried to call you at your old office, but I just missed you by two minutes.

In any case, thank you very much for the check, which arrived this morning. This letter will certify that your debt is now completely liquidated, and I will destroy the IOU that you gave me.

I hope that you are happy in your new home and that your practice is prospering. When you come to New York again, please give me a ring. Perhaps we can have lunch.

All the best,

Very sincerely yours,
