Dear David,

I was very happy to have a chance to meet you personally at the November CTIA Conference at Georgetown but disappointed that we did not find time for a real talk. That was my fault—I slept through the entire second day of the Conference and was very distressed to realize upon awakening that I had missed all the proceedings as well as the opportunity to see more of a number of the participants.

I am indebted to you anew for your very kind letter of the 9th and the pamphlet edition of your annotated bibliography. I do thank you for your suggestions about seeking a paperback edition of Accessories, perhaps in up-dated form. My problem is that I am innately a very poor promoter of my own work. However, I have been receiving recently urgent queries from persons seeking a copy of the book—perhaps provoked by Watergate and/or the film Executive Action.

Probably it is my duty to seek a paperback edition. It might best be approached by sending copies of your bibliography to a few paperback houses. I enclose my check for $10.00 in the hope that you can arrange to have some additional copies mailed to me.

I have not published anything recently. Do you ever get to visit New York? If so, I hope that you will give me the pleasure of being my guest for lunch at the United Nations, where I work, or come for a drink at my apartment. With renewed thanks for your thoughtfulness and generosity,

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia
