Dear Dr Malafatopoulos,

Receipt of your report of 30 January 1975 on "UN General Assembly (XXIX) Fifth Committee, Item 81: Personnel Questions" reminded me that I had not yet thanked you and Mrs Meagher for the excellent reports on administrative, financial and personnel matters which were before the General Assembly and the Fifth Committee. I appreciate these reports all the more as I know that Mrs Meagher has not been well in recent months and that their preparation has demanded considerable effort. Once again, please express to her my appreciation for a job well done.

I expect to be in New York for about a week to ten days from approximately 10 March (to attend part of the CCAQ session and the ICC Management Committee meeting) and I look forward to seeing you then.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Warren W. Furth
