Dear Ms. O'Hara,

Allard Lowenstein's article on the RFK assassination in the May 1976 issue is a needed illumination of what has turned out not to be a cut-and-dried, caught-in-the-act murder but an assassination surrounded by mystery, ambiguity, contradictions, and arrows pointing to conspiracy. My own field of specialization is the JFK case. I am therefore especially grateful to Al Lowenstein for having educated me in the intricacies of the RFK case. We should all be grateful that he is pursuing the thankless task of contesting the bureaucracies in search of the truth, at what I suspect is considerable personal cost. It makes me all the more furious that the FBI and other police agencies conceal and destroy evidence, with impunity. It makes me all the more apprehensive that presidential elections are decided time after time by bullets.

Yours sincerely,
