Dear Mr. Meiseles,

Thank you for your very nice letter of 26 March 1976, which was forwarded to me by my publishers. I am glad that you intend to read Accessories and I hope that you will not be disappointed in the book.

I am sorry to say that I do not make public appearances or give lectures on the assassination. As a general rule, I prefer to have my published work speak for me.

With friendly good wishes,

Yours sincerely,
