Dear Jerry,

I am very grateful to you for sending me the copy of your piece on Richard A. Sprague as it appeared in NEW TIMES , and the copy of your original manuscript for the article.

I think your ms. is an excellent and valuable review of the series of events that culminated in the appointment of the House Select Committee on Assassinations and of Sprague. It contained a great deal of information which was new to me and that should be part of the public record. It is certainly a pity that NEW TIMES made such severe truncations. I am glad that you are trying to place the original ms. elsewhere and I certainly hope you succeed.

Your comment that you have developed a few reservations since writing the article is worrisome. Reservations about Sprague specifically?

With renewed thanks and most sincere congratulations on an excellent piece of work, that I hope will ultimately be published in its entirety.

As ever,
