

January 2, 1977
Turtle Road,
Convent Station, N.J. 07961

Dear Mrs. Meagher,

Thank you for listening to me yesterday about my article and book.

The article is enclosed along with an outline of the book.
I am grateful (and slightly intimidated) that it will be you who is looking them over.

I don't expect a written critique in response, only your suggestion for possible publication if you find the approach useful. My home phone number is 201 JE 9-6732 (~~one~~ reverse charges).

I have learned much from your book, not only about the Kennedy-Oswald assassination, but about how to analyze fact situations. I would be surprised if parts of your book are not required reading in certain training programs
- perhaps by the very people you have written about.

Yours Respectfully,
Richard C. Leaboldt

Replied by phone 1/4/77
re'd him to Chris Brookley at Esquire.