Dear Mr. Kurtz,

Your letter of March 31st has been forwarded to me by my publisher. I appreciate your kind remarks about my work on the assassination.

I am afraid that I cannot be of much help to you in responding to the questions you raise in your letter. I have just returned from a three-month trip around the world, during which I was completely out of touch with developments in the case. Therefore, I have not formed any view, one way or the other, about the present investigation by the House Select Committee. As for my personal theory, I have none beyond the hypothesis which is set forth in my book Accessories in a chapter called, I believe, the Proof of the Plot. As for my view of the Warren Report, the whole thesis of my book was a demonstration that it was a thoroughly tainted and cynical work which belongs in the trashcan of history.

I do wish you good luck with your research paper.

Yours sincerely,
