Dear Sylvia:

I was delighted to receive your letter of April 19th - it has been such a long time since I heard from you.

Your three-month world cruise must have been a great opportunity to unwind and relax, and I hope that you thoroughly enjoyed every day of the trip.

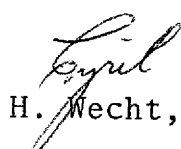

You are quite right. The New York Times never published, or even acknowledged, my letter. The level of their arrogance is truly incredible.

I agree with your observations concerning de Mohrenschildt's death, and the activities of the House Select Committee. I am becoming more disenchanted and pessimistic each day. As of now, it looks like we are about to go down the drain once again - perhaps for the last time.

I shall let you know when I have definite plans to come to New York, so that we can get together.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., J.D.
