Dear B.F.

Thank you ever so for your important datum. Unfortunately, it is the current consensus among lexicographers that the American Heritage Dictionary stinks - in a word. And I'm afraid I must go along with their expert opinion. On the ~~other~~ other hand, despite the fact that it has been charged with bastardizing the English language, ~~xx~~ you may find that it ~~contains~~ ^{has} legitimate words, such as "reify," "ping" and "pong," "ting" and "tong," etc. with appropriate definitions (copied ~~it~~ from ~~Webster's~~ Webster's Unabridged - Natch).

I look forward to resuming our extremely close relationship in Feb. In the meantime, stay well, behave, ~~and~~ and so forth.

Love,

See letterhead

P.S. If you plan to take an around, and will not be available in Feb., I hope you will let me know, so we can make alternate arrangements.
