Dear Sylvia,

Sorry to have taken some time to reply to your last but I was busy putting together No.23. Here it is and I will hope that you enjoy it. The Truby article probably reflects your own feelings to judge from your letter?

Thanks for your efforts with Atlas. I have now discovered that the Oltmans piece, "New mysteries in the Kennedy Assassination?", was, in fact published by them in their May 1977 issue (pp.13+). Please don't go to too much trouble over it but I really would appreciate a copy of that issue if it is possible!

Over here we may brace ourselves with a concentrated onslaught regarding the imminent publication of Epstein's third effort. It starts serialisation in The Sunday Times next weekend and a BBC TV documentary on the JFK murder is planned for March 6 - probably constructed around Epstein's weird theories?? I'll keep you informed.....

I only wish that it was Russell's manuscript that was being published and lauded!

To whet your appetite I would tell you that there may be a major development on the case on this side soon! I've heard sketchy details but my lips are sealed meantime..... Sorry to be such a jerk but its all TOP SECRET at the moment.

I'll close with my usual warm regards and will look foward to hearing from you when you get the opportunity.

All the best,

Harry
