Dear Sylvia,

It's been such a long time since we've been in touch! I hope you are well. I am, and so far am very happy with my professional life as a lawyer. I am now clerking for a federal judge on the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, and will be moving to D.C. in August. I'm now in the process of looking for a job up there.

I assume, from carbons received from Harold, that you are interested in the latest addition to the overcrowded shelf of rotten assassination books and a "legend" in its own right. Thus, I enclose copies of my preliminary notes.

My very best to you,

Howard
