Young Joe picked it up every few months. Of course, my letter wasn't with the pile, because I'd forgotten the damned house number.

On any event, she is still in California (until about mid-April, I think) and wrote me to read her best, and warmest welcome. She will try to write, but you know how worried she gets in ~~the~~ the short months in California.

I'm undergoing some treatments right now so I'm playing ball else to have as quietly as possible. But someday . . .
Hope you are well and do try to enjoy your retirement.

Dear Sylvia:

You have not heard from Maggie

Field because she has just now received the letter I sent to Davis last October. It came back to me about 10 days ago with address unknown.

Not only had I failed to put the house number ~~on~~ on, but I've discovered since that ~~she~~ her husband has a new apartment.

In January, she and I had some long talks back and forth from California concerning my Aunt Anne.

I told her about your response to my note to you and that you'd be pleased to see her. She said that the mail was all kept in Davis and
