Dear Ms. Meagher:

Thank you for your letter of November 28 in which you pointed to some omissions in our bibliography prepared for the House Select Committee on Assassinations. We regret that the 1976 edition of Accessories After the Fact appeared in our collection instead of the earlier edition. Given the hundreds of entries we had to look at and the press of time, it was impossible to be exhaustive.

We appreciate your comments, and should we be called upon to update or revise the bibliography, we will certainly include the entries you provided.

Thank you for your interest.

Sincerely yours,
