

September 1979

Dear Cousin Sylvia,

Many many thanks for your kindness and hearty wishes for the new year.

My dear Sylvia, to my great sorrow I am compelled to be a messenger of bad tidings. It is now 3-months since Moshe has been taken ill suffering from a very serious stroke, leaving the left side of his body paralysed. He has been since then hospitalised in a hospital for such cases, where he receives special treatment, how long he will be hospitalised, only the hospital knows, it depends on the response of his body to the treatment, let us hope for the best

The Physicians don't give much hope for recovering, but there is still a little hope that with the intensive and devoted care from the medical staff we will be able to take him home and continue there the treatment, the hospital management has already told me that according to orders he will be staying in hospital only for a few months longer.

Let us pray and hope that the new year will bring health to the sick and hope to the healthy. My sister and brother in-law join me in sending you, Ruth and other nices our best wishes and greetings for the New Year.

Your devoted
Cousin

"AND WINE MAKETH GLAD THE HEART OF MAN..."

Psalms 104; 15

The tradition of winemaking in the land of Israel goes back to ancient Biblical times, some 3,000 years ago.

Out of Israel's sun-soaked rich soil grows forth a variety of the finest grapes, producing — through modern wine cellars and vinicultural expertise — wines of rich bouquet and delicate aroma renowned the world over.

This is why wine-lovers of five continents enjoy Israeli wine in ever increasing quantities and consider it a "Feast in a Glass".
