Dear Sylvia,

I am amazed by how open I could be with you, and how you seem to have such insight into my difficulties. When I opened my wounds to you, you seemed to be able to give me advice and understanding; I know that in time, all of my concentration will return.

I thank you sincerely for the delicious dinner, and I hope we can meet again.

You seem to be the gentle kind of person, with whom I feel open to speaking with.

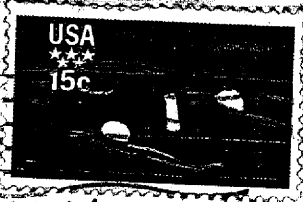

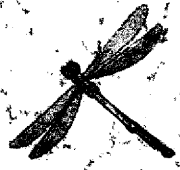

I enjoyed hearing about you, also, and your opinions.

Very truly yours,

Reisa L. Gerber

PS Give Mami a kiss for me!
