

ROYALTY REPORT FOR 1980

March, 1981

Dear Publisher or Author:

During 1980 calendar year, there were no sales of your books through Books on Demand. Reprints are still available from us, and we will continue to include the books in our Guides and subject catalogs.

We have also enclosed a separate list which includes all your titles available through Books on Demand. This list includes current prices, reflecting a significant price increase implemented in January 1981. Along with this list is a page which explains our codes and provides detailed ordering information.

As in the past, we request that you continue to direct customers to us for your out-of-print titles. To make this task easier, we would be glad to forward a supply of referral postcards (sample enclosed). Upon your request, we will also generate a camera-ready list of your books for use in your catalogs, etc. These lists include full bibliographic information for each title, catalog numbers and current prices.

With your cooperation, 1980 was an excellent year for BOD acquisitions, with nearly 4000 new titles added. As always, we greatly appreciate your continued participation. We welcome your comments and suggestions.

Sincerely,

Marcia A. Rowan
Acquisitions Manager

USEFUL ORDER INFORMATION FOR YOUR CUSTOMER SERVICE DEPARTMENT FROM THE PRICE LIST "BOOK MASTER BILLING FILE IN ROYALTY CODE SEQUENCE."

UMI ORDER NUMBER appears under the CATALOG column. Please refer to this number when placing an order. Books with 2,000,000 order numbers are available in hardcopy only. All others with order numbers beginning with prefixes OP, CD, PB, BH, AU, etc., are available in hardcopy and on 35mm roll microfilm.

PRICE of your books appears in the righthand column. The microfilm price (MIC$) appears first. The paperbound reprint price (XER$) appears in the last column and is the highest price. Cloth bindings are $5.00 more per volume. Prices listed are U.S., Mexican and Canadian. Please add 15% for delivery to the rest of the world. Shipping and handling charges are additional. Prepayment is required from individuals. All books are sold on a nonreturnable basis.

The spelling of AUTHOR and TITLE is abbreviated because information about each book has been limited to one line. Please be assured that the complete author and title entry appears in all promotions.

If you cancelled titles from the program in the past, you will see the word CANCEL under the column X-BOOK. If a new order number was assigned, it will appear here.

In answer to your inquiry...

regarding titles which are no longer available from the publisher, you will be pleased to learn that demand reprints of many books can be supplied by University Microfilms International. These books are reprinted specifically at the request of the purchaser, either as microfilm or xerographic copies. A xerographic copy is printed on book-weight paper and bound in your choice of paper or cloth cover.

To determine if University Microfilms has the title you want and to get a price quotation, please phone or contact them directly, using the attached card.

Is Your Interest in On-Demand Books a Continuing One?

Complete Author, Title, and Subject Guides to more than 93,000 titles in the Books on Demand program are available from University Microfilms International. These titles were originally published by university presses, learned societies, and trade book publishers around the world. Some were published as recently as the present day, while others date back as far as the 15th century. Together they represent significant subjects from the sciences to the humanities, and various forms from fiction to reference works. The guides may be found at your university library or bookstore or may be purchased from University Microfilms.

Please write or call for further information.
