Dear Sylvia,

Thank you for your last letter and kind response to my book review.

I am planning and trip to New York City on April 6 and would love to meet you if possible. I don't get to New York very often, so am writing this letter in advance with the hopes that we can get together.

My research on the assassination is continuing; I have talked with the Philadelphia Inquirer about a feature on Philadelphia's connection with the case. They seem interested.

There are many Philadelphians interested in the Select Committee's report - this will be the focus of my article. But I have so many questions - your knowledge would be invaluable (or at least a big help)!

Let me know if we can get together (even just briefly) either during the day or after 8 p.m. I am enclosing a picture, so you can recognize me if we meet, say, for dinner somewhere.

Yours truly,

Tim Cwiek
