Dear Sylvia:

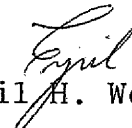

It was a pleasure receiving your letter, and I was delighted to read your comments concerning the Lifton and Blakey books.

Things have worked out well here. I was acquitted and totally vindicated. It has been a long, painful, and expensive ordeal, and I shall now have some catching up to do in many ways.

I hope I shall be able to visit with you in New York sometime in the near future.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., J.D.

Bob Schmalzreid wrote again - he's a great admirer of yours. Sorry to learn of your good friend's death. These tragedies are difficult to get over. Take care of yourself.
