Dear Sylvia:

Thank you for your letter of May 28th.

I have already ordered your index and look forward to receiving it. I can appreciate what a tremendous undertaking that project was, and you are to be commended for having done something once again that the Federal Government should have done if they were the least bit sensitive and concerned about this matter.

I share your anger and disgust regarding Blakey, Lifton, et al. There seems to be no end to this kind of nonsense and deliberate continuing cover-up.

I hope we can meet in New York some time soon, but I insist that you be my guest for dinner when we do!

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., J.D.
