Dear Mr. Vittoriosso:

This will acknowledge your letter of June 18, 1981.

I appreciate your kind comments about Plot. While I would support a reopening of the investigation into the President's death by the Department of Justice, I am not hopeful that it will occur or that if it did, the conspirators could be brought to book. My judgment is that our institutions of government failed and that about all that can be done now for sure is admit that failure and move on.

Sincerely,

G. Robert Blakey
