Deer Sylvia,

This card is (a) usefully, disgracefully late, and (b) just very satisfactory as to the cat pictured, but the card itself was most unsatisfactory in its cats. I don't know how I got your birthday mixed up with July 29th, and I'm ashamed of myself.
I do hope you enjoyed your Island! You must have a beautiful time. Mine, I know, was as lucky as a cat can be. — Had a wonderful time in Boston, Ted has kindly reported to you.
I'm going to Syracuse tomorrow to see Sophie's Dad (it's all our mother, in my several legs) and hope to get up to New York in Wishing someone

Happy Birthday!

September. It's been sticky summer here but Boston was delightful weather. — All telephone you as soon as I get back. Love love, David
