Dear Sylvia :

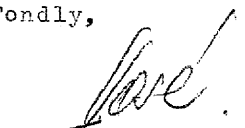

These lines are bringing you a check for five hundred dollars to help pay for the loan made to my wife some years ago.

It does not mean and you know it well that our indebtedness to you is being diminished or reduced. On the contrary the memory of your generosity will be part of our life to the end of it. We are in fact looking forward to showing you the depth of our gratitude and the sincerity of our affection.

We received your note and check of past weeks. Both speak highly of you and confirm us in our great opinion of you.

Please keep well.

Fondly,

JOSE M. GOMEZ. LEONOR.
