

Roger Feinman

12/31/81

Dear Sylvia,

This check represents a partial repayment of your generous loan to me, but for which I actually would have gone hungry. I hope to repay you the balance in installments once I get a steady job or find the mythical golden fleece, whichever comes sooner, but in either event hopefully during the course of the coming year.

Best,

Roger