

PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY ASSASSINATION FILM CHRONOLOGY:

Specially prepared compilation of the various amateur and professional films of the President Kennedy motorcade on November 22, 1963. The comprehensive chronology of film footage documents the Presidential motorcade from Love Field, through the downtown Dallas area, to the Dealey Plaza assassination.

Included in the film chronology are blow-up sequences (rotoscope process) of key segments of the assassination related footage, as well as slow-motion sequences, freeze-frames, and other specially prepared graphic effects.

The chronology utilizes amateur film footage as well as professional newsreel and television film recorded along the parade route, from motorcade vehicles, and in the Plaza at the time of the shooting. Including the following footage:

-  Abraham Zapruder film- The definitive Elm Street sequence, with optical effects, rotoscoping, etc.
-  Orville Nix film- Motorcade on Houston and Elm Streets, grassy knoll area before and after shots
-  Marie Muchmore film- JFK limousine on Houston and Elm streets
-  Robert Hughes film- Motorcade passing the Depository Bldg.
-  F. Mark Bell film- Motorcade in the Plaza, and grassy knoll area following the assassination.
-  Patsy Paschall film- JFK limousine on Elm near the underpass.
-  Tina Towner film- JFK limo on Elm near the Depository.
-  John Martin film- Motorcade in the Plaza, view of knoll.
-  Elsie Dorman film- Motorcade on Houston Street passing below the Depository Building.
-  Jack Daniel film- JFK limousine near the triple underpass.
-  Thomas Atkins film- View of knoll area following shots.
-  Charles Bronson film- View of TSBD windows, with blow-ups.

Various other films are used for continuity- including the Dallas Cinema Associates (DCA) parade footage, television film by ABC/ CBS/ NBC cameramen, and other obscure motorcade footage from Nov. 22, 1963.

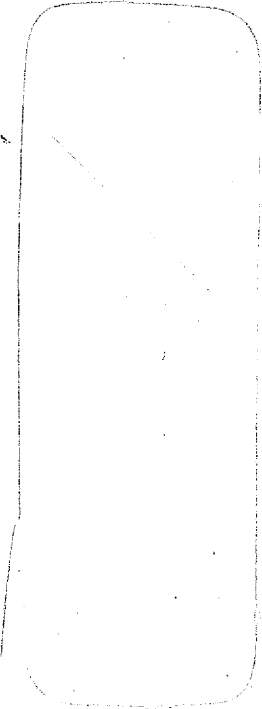

The John F. Kennedy assassination film chronology incorporates obscure footage, taken on November 22 in Dealey Plaza, and made available to select researchers on a limited basis since 1963. Some films have never been made available- and are offered to students of the JFK case for the first time.
