

READERS DIGEST

Jan.18, 1983

Ms.Sylvia Meagher
302 West 12th St.
New York, NY 10014

Dear Ms.Meagher,

I am enclosing the material I borrowed -- minus Anson's book, They've Killed the President!which I am still reading. (It's a bit too much to Xerox.)

I would like you to know that I deeply appreciated your help yesterday -- especially since you weren't feeling well. I even felt quite guilty about having made you laugh -- and then cough -- with that Marine's quote! (But I'm glad you enjoyed it!)

Perhaps the next time I'm in New York we could get together over lunch somewhere. I've just received the latest revision of the autopsy chapter. What a perfect topic to discuss over a meal!!! (Don't worry -- I'm just kidding.)

Thank you so much again for your kindness and patience,

Sincerely yours,

Sissi Maleki