Dear Mrs. Meagher,

Many thanks for taking time to see Sissi Maleki on Monday. She has told me how very helpful you were to her, and please know that we greatly appreciate it.

From the start of this project, I have meant to get in touch with you myself--and still hope to when I am next in New York. In my rather close dealings with Paul Hoch, Harold Weisberg, Mary Ferrell and Gary Shaw, your name constantly comes up as one of the most respected of the critics. And I must say that your Index is probably the greatest single contribution anyone has made.

Thank you again for your help, and I look forward to seeing you before long.

Sincerely yours,

Henry Hurt

P.S.: Enclosed are a couple of articles by me that I thought might interest you. I understand Sissi gave you a copy of Shadrin.
