

READERS DIGEST

March 25, 1983

Ms. Sylvia Meagher
302 West 12th St.
New York, NY 10014

Dear Ms. Meagher:

Here are the books as I promised. I copied the Thornley book and some pages of the Bonner book. I skimmed through them briefly, and as you said, I doubt Henry will find anything useful in them.

HURT
I really enjoyed our lunch yesterday. I'm still fantasizing about eating the dessert you had!! At the risk of being repetitive in my letters, I simply have to tell you how grateful I am for all your help and patience. I truly hope you will feel your efforts were worth it, when the book is published.

Thank you again for everything,

Sincerely yours,
Sissi Maleki
Sissi Maleki

P.S. One last favor: remember the man I mentioned I was looking for?? His name is Phillip Manuel and he lives in Northern Virginia. I'd really appreciate it if you could ask around if and when you happen to talk to any of your JFK contacts. Perhaps someone might have his number. (Please call me collect!) Thanks a million!