Dear Sylvia:

Christmas is a happy occasion for us and in this context of happiness you must be included.

Thanks again for helping us out when we needed it most... Your help for both of us will always be remembered for its efficiency and for the delicate manner in which help was handled.

May the New Year bring you health, peace, prosperity (for our own sake) Leonor is still hanging on with Margery. please... make us come to our senses.

Wishing you all the happiness that the Holidays and the New Year can bring

With much love,

Love + Leonor
