

February 18, 1986

Mr. Alexander Charns
Suite 300, Allentown Bldg.
119 Orange Street
Durham, N.C. 27702

Dear Alex,

My fellow-critic, Paul L. Hech, expressed some curiosity about the N.Y. Times story on Warren and Heever. I sent him the Durham Morning Herald version of the story and he sent me the enclosed letter, with a copy for you, in case you would like to establish contact with him. Paul publishes an occasional newsletter, Echoes of Conspiracy (EOC) dealing mainly with the JFC case. His address is: 1525 Acton Street, Berkeley, California, 94702.

Also, I had mentioned that another of the critics, Jerry Feliceff, was relocating in Greensboro. He is there now, as national sales manager for a TV station, and can be reached at his office, 919-379-9369, or at his home, 919-282-6923.

I hope that you were able to get hold of Curt Gentry's book Whitewash with its interesting picture of Warren trying a cover-up.

With best regards,