February 1988

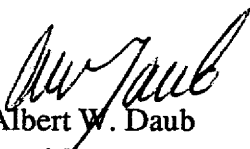

Dear Author:

Enclosed you will find your royalty statement and your check for sales during 1987. As you will see from the statement, Scarecrow Press has entered the world of computers. Henceforth all royalty reporting will be done on the enclosed format. Our computer system went live on March 15th. Books sold before March 15 have been picked up in this royalty accounting. Advances and debit balances from previous years have also been brought forward and are clearly identified on the statement. Outstanding invoices have been deducted from the payment. Details are appended to the accounting.

We trust you will find all in order. If you have any questions about the statement, please do not hesitate to contact us. I would appreciate it if questions could be submitted in writing so that we can do some research and be sure to get you an accurate answer rather than try to do it over the phone.

The money you receive here was earned for 1987 sales and paid to you in 1988 and is, therefore, 1988 income that you will pick up on your 1989 tax return. Taxes to be reported by April 15, 1988 cover money you received from us in 1987. Your 1099 statement for your 1987 Scarecrow income should be in your hands by this time. The IRS rules changed this year, and accordingly we provided 1099 forms for everyone receiving $10.00 or more from Scarecrow Press.

Sincerely,

Albert W. Daub
President
