Dear Mr. Bowman,

Mr. Nobile has sent me your letter of 19 November 1971 and I am pleased to reply to your questions so far as I can do so.

My book Accessories After the Fact is out of print. It is just possible that Marboro Books may still have a few copies of the remaindered stock but if not the only source would be the public library. My other book, the Subject Index to the Warren Report and the Hearings and Exhibits, is also out of print, although microfilm copies are available from University Microfilms at Ann Arbor, Michigan. However, it is a technical work and a tool which is useful only to those who own and are working with the 26 volumes of testimony and documents. If you do not have the 26 volumes, you do not need the Subject Index.

The reference to the young man in the Philadelphia area was unfortunately misleading. It should have specified that he had written a manuscript rather than a book, since the work has not yet found a publisher and is therefore not available. I do hope that it will be published and become available to the public.

Robert Cutler's monograph, Two Flightpaths: Evidence of Conspiracy, is available from the author at $7.00 per copy, ppd Cutler Designs, 38 Union Street, Manchester, Mass. 01944.

Yours sincerely,
