Dear Miss Meagher,

Enclosed is $5.00 for a copy of your "Subject Index to the Warren Report". I do not know the price of the book, so send the remaining amount or bill me for the rest.

I found your article in Minority of One very interesting. I had just completed reading Volume VIII last week.

How I wish you were on the west coast and could work with me!!! I have been working on the Assassination for 2½ years. The entire way it happened is clear to me now. All I need is a few hard workers to help place the volume and page numbers in their proper places and then the story can be told. I have a family of five children, and the Warren Hearing reading and classification and cross filing takes what is left of a busy day.

I keep 16 spiral notebooks, three hole, on my desk. There are 125 dividers in these books. By cross-filing and placing what I want into the proper sections, it will eventually tell many, many stories at one time.

One of the important things about the Hartog story is the date of his interviews on the air and T. V. His damaging evidence was heard over the world by Nov. 23, when the FBI and Secret Service had "found him". "By coincidence", you remember.

Also by coincidence, Mr. Thornley was being interviewed Nov. 23, 1963 in New Orleans. His "memory" of Oswald was being repeated around the world. The fact that none of their family or friends of Oswald except these men remembered him as that kind of person is interesting. How did the Secret Service find the two most damaging character assassinations only hours before Oswald was killed?

I have an divider marked "Nov. 23, 1963". The damaging remarks were all made then.

Your index should be a help to me. I may try to publish or sell my outline system so that others working on the report may put into the proper sections material as they find it.

Sincerely,

Wal Brussell

P.S. Where did you get your copy of the Hartog book? Ours came from a John Birch book store in Los Angeles, not the regular book stores. Same with the Thornley books- ordered by mail to Chicago.
