

12/26/66

Dear Tom -

Although I have not responded to your nine-page letter, it is not because I intend to ignore it - it is only that I simply don't have the time to enter into such polemics. Anyhow, as the first of all the critics to see a screening of the Zapruder film (which I saw only on 12/8/66), you had every opportunity to do what needed to be done and what you reprimand the critics for not having done, or not done to your satisfaction. Perhaps you will feel better when you read the January Lampports. In any case, let's not pursue this further as it can become a negative exercise which will accomplish nothing or create bad feeling. Let's cooperate amicably and within acceptable limits, as we have in the past, without reproaches of dubious validity.

I do wish you and Mrs. Hamm a very happy 1967. With kind regards,

Sylvia
