Dear Mr. Zes,

This will reply to your letter of the 21st. Ray Marcus, the author of the monograph "The Bastard Bullet: A Search for Legitimacy for CE 399," was the author of a long rebuttal of the Cohen article in Frontier. I know that it was sent to the editor of Frontier and/or Cohen, and submitted elsewhere for publication, but apparently its very length disqualified it. Perhaps if you write to Ray Marcus, c/o Ramparts Magazine, 301 Broadway, San Francisco, he may be able to let you see a copy of his typewritten critique of Cohen's article.

Thank you for your kind remarks about my articles. I truly appreciate your interest and encouragement. I am hopeful that my book will serve to add to the growing pool of knowledge about the Warren Report and the real facts of the case; the book should be available sometime in October or very soon thereafter.

Yours sincerely,
