

Monday 18 July 1966

Dear Susan,

Yesterday Grandpa called, he seems to be in good spirits and okay generally. Diane called also, at about 9.30 at night, after a busy weekend. She and Manny had been fishing and he won $32 for catching the biggest fish. Isabel gave a brunch yesterday, for me to meet two Ufologists whom I had not yet met, an atmospheric physicist and a young Californian. It was very interesting and Isabel is walking on air now that Lex is much improved and nothing much wrong with him physically or mentally.

The only other news--don't get scared--is that my publishers just called me (Scarecrow Press). They have had a communication from General Walker, objecting to my classifying him in my subject index under "Right-Wingers and Neo-Nazis" and threatening to sue them and me. I am not worried but will call Joe Lobenthal, and see what I want to do, if anything.

Love,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'Sylvia', written in dark ink.