

3 July 1967

Dear Penn,

Jones

You were very sweet to return my call today but I did have a word with the operator after we said goodbye, so don't go paying any charges or the phone company, not you or I, will be the richer for it. And next time, return my calls, collect, you hear? Don't make a girl feel bad, Big-Daddy.

Also, Penn, I meant what I said about a check, the minute you need it. Don't wait till your pinch really hurts before you holler, when I have some dough around that's doing nothing at all and could take some of the strain off.

Chin up, and my love to L.A.

Yours always,

Sylvia Meagher