Dear Miss Meagher:

This is a belated thank you for your very kind words with regard to my Yale Law Review - Article. There was an error in the Review which I am very embarrassed about concerning Howard Bonar. He does exist and I have so informed the Yale Law Journal.

I am at a loss at this point to know how research on the question of the Commission's report should go on. Do you think that it would be worthwhile to bring together half a dozen or ten or so people who you view as serious researchers in the field for a discussion at the Institute. Please let me know your views on this matter.

Thank you again.

Regards,
