Dear Mr. Alloway,

I am very sorry to inform you, in response to your letter of the 16th, that I am unable to provide you with a copy or copies of the Subject Index. Unfortunately, I have only a personal working copy. I had ordered some additional copies from The Scarecrow Press earlier this year, being unaware that the supply was nearing exhaustion. By the time my order came to the publishers' attention, the Index was already out of print.

I am most regretful that I cannot be of assistance.

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
