Dear Mrs. Stevens,

My book Accessories After The Fact is not out yet. The publishers, The Bobbs-Merrill Company, expect to have copies in the book stores about middle October, although the official date of publication will be somewhat later. I am sorry that you had a wild goose chase, looking for it, and I do hope that it will not disappoint you when you read it.

I was taken by surprise when the Subject Index went out of print; the publisher did not give me any warning that the edition was near exhaustion, and I am left only with the copy I use myself. I am very sorry that I cannot provide you with the Index nor suggest where you might obtain a copy (I would like a few extra copies myself).

If I can be of any assistance on specific references out of the Index, I will be glad to help, if you will telephone me any evening or on the weekend, at Chelsea 2-4293. I assume that you are doing research in the Hearings and Exhibits? Please feel sure that I will be happy to be of assistance, if I can, or just to talk about the case, if you like.

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
