Dear Dave,

Congratulations on the publication of The Great Society! and also on the excellent review in the N.Y. Times of last Sunday. I am really looking forward to reading the book, as soon as I can. Life has been hectic since the publication of Accessories (as it was before). Even so, far too much time has gone by since we were last in touch, in the summer of 1966, I believe. I hope all goes well for you and send my warmest good wishes for the success of your book.

Sincerely,

Lynne Keaney
