Dear Mrs. Oswald,

Further to your telephone call of today, I wish to corroborate that there is no document or testimony in the twenty-six volumes of the Warren Commission's Hearings and Exhibits which establishes or indicates that Lee Harvey Oswald received delivery of the package mailed by Klein's Sporting Goods, Chicago, containing the C2766 Mannlicher-Carcano 6.5 Italian rifle. I wish to emphasize also that the Warren Commission documents available in the National Archives, Washington, D.C., do not to my knowledge contain any information or evidence that the package in question was delivered to Lee Harvey Oswald.

Yours very sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
