

Aug. 4, 1968

Dear Mrs. Meagher -

This is just an interim letter. The list of books I promised you will follow as soon as I can collate it against the new bibliography that I've ordered from "American Book Collector." Since that can take a little time, I wanted to get this off to you first...

To begin, the address of the dealer that specializes in JFK books, etc. is -

The Jenkins Co.
304 W. 14th
Austin, Texas

(Catalog No. 3). This is the best listing of books for sale I've ever seen. In fact, it's the best list, period!

Incidentally, did you locate the address of that California (?) dealer from your files yet? I want to contact him, of course.

Did I see a 4th Weinberg "Whitewash" in your bookcase? I don't I did, but may be mistaken. I only have 3 pts so far.

Before I go further, thanks again for seeing me on short notice. We were both tired - but it was a most interesting evening (and instructive, too)!

I got (and read) your article in "Minority of One" in the current issue. Good...

So, I looked at what was said about you in "Should We Now Believe The Warren Report" - and got angry at what I saw. Having spent time with you, I know that the two references there are both unkind and untrue.

Do you have a list of all the published articles you've done on JFK's murder? If so, I'd like to check it against my collection.

Our conversation shook my complacency - and in turn I spoke to a well-known book dealer, but I didn't shake him at all. He said he puts his trust in Warren's integrity, etc, and that's that. And he is an ex-professor, writer, etc. So there's a long row ahead of us.

If you ever learn of a showing of either the Zapruder or six films, please let me know.

Hope you enjoy your vacation. Drop me a line on the above when you have the chance. And I'll write further after the bibliography arrives.

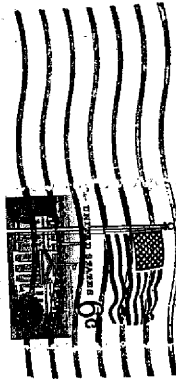

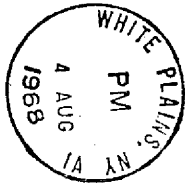

Best regards -

Manuel B. Jarshish
15 Manor Ave.
White Plains, New York 10605

OLD CHELSEA STATION

Manuel B. Daskish
15 Manor Ave.
White Plains, New York 10605

Mrs. Sylvia Meagher
302 W. 122 St.
New York, N.Y.

Handwritten notes:
get 0 mt in ing list in 8/19/68
sent reply sent