Dear Mrs. Meagher,

It was a pleasure to speak with you last Monday. I intend to call again when I am in New York during the latter part of August.

It discourages me to find your book has not sold well because I think it is, by far, the best book written on the Warren Commission. I skimmed through the CBS book ( White ?) last night and noted with dismay that the author seems to feel that nothing short of proving Johnson is responsible makes any effort to determine the truth worthwhile. It appears that powerful interests will turn logic inside out before admitting that this country has citizens who are entitled to question the Commission. Can it be that assassination is to be accepted now as just another hazard of politics ? This CBS efforts makes me doubt my own sanity because the inaccuracies and inverted logic are simply beyond my understanding.

Please excuse my hasty goodbye from the airport.

Sincerely,

A. P. Kimbrough
