Dear Mr. Thompson,

Thank you very much indeed for your kind letter of 31st August and enclosures. I do appreciate the trouble you took to relate your experiences in respect of books on the assassination and I am only sorry that I am pressed for time and cannot respond as fully as I should like.

It is kind of you to offer to send me your bibliography. I shall look forward eagerly to seeing it. Meanwhile, please accept my most sincere congratulations on your patience and persistence in compiling what I feel sure will be a very valuable addition to the literature on this subject. All good luck with it!

Mrs. Field's book remains unpublished, to the best of my knowledge.

Let me hasten to clarify one matter: I believe that you must have misunderstood my comment, in my last letter, about the Subject Index. I did not say that the Hearings and Exhibits were of no value to the researcher without my Index, but the reverse—that is, that the Index was of no value unless the researcher had the Hearings and Exhibits, to which the Index is a guide of sorts. No use having a guide to the 26 volumes unless you have the 26 volumes!

I am enclosing a copy of an article, "Three Assassinations," which appears in the current issue of The Minority of One, as you may not receive this magazine. Perhaps the article will hold some interest for you. With renewed thanks and good wishes,

Sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
