Dear Mrs. Meagher:

On Oct. 1 I'm leaving Life to become associate editor of the St. Petersburg Times and its Washington subsidiary, Congressional Quarterly. I'm not giving up my interest in the assassination, and the fact that this magazine have for some time been at variance on the subject has nothing to do with my decision. I'm leaving to pursue my journalistic career.

I am, however, taking my assassination files with me, and a book will one day be forthcoming. In this regard I'd like an opportunity to talk with you before I leave. I also need a copy of your index to the 26 volumes, which I'd be happy to purchase, if you would tell me how to go about it.

Sincerely, .

Richard N. Billings
