Dear Dean Baker,

Thank you very much for your helpful letter of the 21st. I do appreciate the trouble you took to respond to my questions.

Probably it would be less expensive to purchase the microfilms from Bell & Howell than to travel to Ann Arbor. I will have to think about it before deciding.

I do hope that you will be able before long to resume your study of press coverage of the Warren Report, the critical assault on the official thesis, the attempts by CBS and others to vindicate the Report, Garrison's so-called "investigation," and other facets of this endlessly convoluted subject. My book Accessories includes a brief appendix on the news media and the Warren Report, but a far more comprehensive, structured study is really needed.

If you ever find yourself in New York, please let me know.
With renewed thanks,

Yours sincerely,
