

FOUNDED 1801

New York Post

75 WEST STREET • NEW YORK, N. Y. 10006

Dear Miss Meagher-

I have read numerous books and articles on the John Kennedy assassination and I share your view: there must have been more than one killer. But Oswald is the accepted killer, the only one whose name we know. He must, in consequence, bear all the guilt until the investigation is reopened. And I truly feel it ought to be.

Thank you for your nice letter. I hope your book does well.

Sincerely,

Harriet Van Horne