Miss Sylvia Meagher
302 West 12th Street
New York, New York 10014

Dear Miss Meagher:

Thank you for your recent communication concerning Federal computer surveillance of American citizens.

I appreciate having your expression of support of Senator Ervin's efforts and I assure you that I am following his investigations closely. I myself have written to the Secretary of the Army concerning the data bank at Fort Holabird and in this connection the enclosed letter may be of interest to you. I understand that the Army's statement of the facts has since been challenged and I assure you that I will continue to look into this matter.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Jacob K. Javits, U.S.S.
