Dear Mr. Adams,

Just a short note to thank you for your informative letter of the 22nd and for your kind offer to send me additional information at a later time. I shall be glad to receive the reports which you mention in your letter.

I note that your inquiries into Criesman seem to be predicated on allegations by Garrison, Jones, and Sahl. You will have to discover for yourself whether or not these gentlemen deserve to be taken seriously. Personally, I have found their pronouncements invariably irresponsible, irrelevant, or simply deranged.

Best wishes,

Yours sincerely,
